500 Women Greet Mrs. Ihrig Today

NATIONALLY KNOWN ARTICLES USED IN CLASSES.

"Days of Kitchen 'Slave' Over," Says Cooking Expert; Likes Color.

In her model kitchen on the stage of the American Legion Hall, Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig was greeted enthusiastically by a crowd of Canyon and Randall County women this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Her coming to Canyon has been made possible by The Canyon News with the co-operation of advertisers. The classes are free to Randall County women.

Valuable Prizes.
Mrs. Ihrig will continue to conduct classes of the school Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoon. Many valuable prizes will be given away daily by Canyon merchants.

Mrs. Ihrig presents each day a new and different program, incorporating in her lectures not only the fundamentals of efficient and inexpensive cooking but the principles of proper eating, and home management as well.

The model kitchen has ultra modern equipment including General Electric refrigerator, L. & H. gas range, Hoosier cabinet, Pyrex casseroles, Kitchen Electric "Mix-Master," "Kitchen Kan" and the floor is laid with a Congoleum rug. These furnishings came from the Thompson Furniture and Hardware Company.

Many Products Used
Nationally known products demonstrated are KC Baking Powder and Great West Flour.

The Bellah Food Store has been designated as the "official" grocery for the school and there is meat from the Buffalo meat market. Mrs. Ihrig wears Nelly-Don dresses from McCarty Bros., Inc., and Allen-A hose from The Canyon Supply Co.

Mrs. Ihrig prefers Elizabeth Arden and Cara Nome cosmetics for home beauty treatment and receives hers at the City Pharmacy. As for beauty parlors, she believes the Terry Beauty Salon is one of the very finest.

Kitchen "Slave" Gone

"The days of the kitchen 'slave' are over," said Mrs. Ihrig. "The modern mother puts the dinner on the L. & H. and the dessert in the General Electric, and goes for a round of golf with her husband, confident that the dinner will be practically ready when she returns."

"The scientist and the inventor constantly are striving to make the work of keeping house less. Conservation of energy has become a paramount principle."

Light Important

"The bright kitchen is as important as the clean one. Proper light and ventilation should receive more consideration here than in any other rooms of the house. More than half of the average housewife's day is spent in the kitchen."

"Color has invaded the kitchen in cooking vessels and furnishings of bright red, blues, yellows and greens."

"Were I furnishing a home, I would first outfit the kitchen complete in every detail and then spend the rest of my money on the other rooms—but the kitchen comes first."

HARVEY CASH ASKS FOR OFFICIAL JOB

Harvey Cash, efficient city clerk, has asked for another official position in the city of Canyon.

In commenting upon the Cooking School yesterday he expressed the desire to be appointed official cake and pie sampler. Just whether or not he was willing to pass final judgment as to the distribution of the prizes offered, Mr. Cash did not state. However, indications were that just a big hunk of cake, and a liberal slice of pie would satisfy him in this new official capacity.

The request will be referred to Mrs. Ihrig for due consideration.

2.58 Inches of Rain Falls in County Saturday and Sunday

Rain covered Randall county Saturday and Sunday, the total moisture in Canyon amounting to 2.58 inches.

The rain started to fall at 11:30 Saturday night and continued most of the night. This downpour amounted to 2.25 inches.

Showers continued Sunday morning, and ended with a heavy rain Sunday afternoon at 3:30. The total moisture for the day amounted to one-third of an inch.

Geo. F. L. Bishop states the Tierra Blanca creek is higher than at any time he has lived east of the city for the past ten years.

The rains of the past week are said to have greatly benefitted most of the wheat of the county.

and will make possible the planting of one of the largest crops the county has ever had. Added to the 2.8 inch rain of Friday night the rains of Saturday and Sunday make a total of 2.86 for the three days.

The total moisture for the year is below normal. The total up to the first of June was only 6.86 inches. The rains of this week brings the total to 9.82 inches for the year of 1932.

The rains of the past week are general over the Panhandle, and have completely covered West Texas, according to advice gathered by the Associated Press.

Reports from over the county indicate that a large percent of the acreage of row crop which had been planted early must be replanted owing to the hard down-fall Saturday night.

W. E. Bennett, county commissioner, states that he had 1 1/2 inches of rain Saturday and Sunday and that no damage was done owing to the fact that it fell slowly, and not in torrents as it did in this part of the county.

Great damage was done to the highway grade north of the viaduct, the new section connecting with the highway west being badly washed. It is stated that it will cost the state and county several thousand of dollars to put the roads and highways back in shape as a result of the heavy down-pour.

It is through their efforts, and at their expense that many of the children in our public schools receive their education. The parents of these little unfortunates lack money for food and clothing necessary to the health and comfort of the children. The City Federation supplies this need. We hope that everyone will help by making and buying a cake for this contest."

Mrs. Ihrig will give detailed instruction in cake baking in her demonstrations tomorrow. She will give recipes and will bake her famous "Great West" cake and her "K. C. Everyday" cake. She will also present several new principles of cake baking which undoubtedly will prove valuable to the cake-bakers of Canyon who plan to enter cakes in the Cake and Pie Baking Contest Friday.

Increase Loans to Farmers Proposed in Bill by Jones

Increasing farm loans from the maximum of $400 to $2,000 is proposed in a bill in congress introduced by Marvin Jones, congressman from this district. This proposal is being made owing to the fact that not all of the appropriation recently made by congress has been used by the farmers, especially of the southwest.

At a meeting of the representatives of the various counties who have handled local loans held in Amarillo Saturday, approval was made of the increase in the size of loans possible for farmers, and Mr. Jones highly complimented.

W. C. Black, H. W. Upchurch, R. O. Allison and Fred E. Wortham, who have handled the loans for this county, attended the meeting.

Reduction Values Will Lower Pay of Commissioner Court

County valuations will be reduced so greatly this year that the salaries of all members of the Commissioners' Court will be reduced, stated County Commissioner W. E. Bennett yesterday. The court is closing up its work as a board of equalization.

The law provides that when county valuations go to $7,500,000 or more that members of the court receive $100 per month for their services. The renditions this year have been reduced to such an extent that salaries of the commissioners will automatically be reduced, and they will draw a per diem of $5.00 for all days spent in looking after the county's business.

Judge S. B. Orton stated this morning that all real estate values had been reduced 10 per cent by the court, and that the value of personal property had been greatly reduced.

Rains Hold Up Start of Highway Work West

The heavy rains of Saturday and Sunday held up the start on highway construction west of the city which was scheduled to start Monday.

It is planned to start this work Wednesday.

T. H. Rowan of Amarillo was a business caller in the city yesterday.

Walter Mounts, business man of Amarillo, was in the city Monday on business.

Women Students Invited To Attend School

A cordial invitation is extended to the women students and faculty members of the West Texas State Teachers College to attend the Canyon News' First Annual Cooking School which is being conducted Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons of this week by Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, well known culinary expert. The sessions are held at 2 o'clock at the American Legion Hall.

Mrs. Ihrig gives exceedingly practical demonstrations of the preparation of foods with consideration given to the economy that every housewife needs. She has conducted cooking schools in many towns over the Panhandle and is familiar with conditions in this part of the country. She discusses the bio-chemistry of foods and the art of preparing nourishing meals at small cost.

Mrs. Ihrig is assisted in her work by Miss Jewel Faulkner, a senior student in the Home Economics department of the College.

Large Attendance at Opening of College--Registration Continues

Enrollment at noon today numbered 419 in the College. This is a larger number than the first two days of last summer.

The summer quarter of the College opened yesterday morning with the corridors filled with students seeking registration, and telephone calls and telegrams coming from all sections of the Panhandle telling that the heavy rains would detain others from reaching Canyon for a few days.

The first day's registration totaled 265, stated Business Manager Travis Shaw. This included only those whose registration was completed and who had paid their fees. Many others had not completed the details of registration.

Mr. Shaw states that this is a very large first day's registration.

Of the number registering the first day 102 are reported to have never been enrolled at W. T. before.

The beginning of the Summer Session at the College always means a renewing of many acquaintances and friendships for the summer school has many students who come back year after year. With the heavy enrollment Monday a great number of familiar features were seen.

Lewis Hill, superintendent at Follett, and former Buffalo basketball star is back.

Jennings Flatthers, of Canadian, who left school at the end of his freshman year to teach at Higgins, is again at work.

Ormond Joiner of Dalhart, who taught last year at Lovington, has returned to Canyon with his bride.

Ernest Cabe is back in college after spending the year teaching at Morse.

Mrs. Matalie Myers of Amarillo is again in school to work toward her degree.

Miss Annie McDonald who received her B. A. degree June first is here to begin work on her Masters degree. Miss McDonald is assistant superintendent in Amarillo.

Miss Ethel Jackson, principal of the Wolfelin School in Amarillo is taking summer work.

Business Men Invited To Attend School

Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig and The Canyon News extend to the business men of Canyon a most cordial invitation to attend the sessions of the Cooking School at the American Legion Hall.

"One usually thinks of a cooking school as being a strictly woman's party. I have found in nine years of experience in conducting schools that men derive no little enjoyment from the meetings," Mrs. Ihrig said today.

"Mrs. Ihrig brings more than cooking to the people of Canyon, said Clyde W. Warwick, editor of The News today. "Her lectures on dietetics and proper food balance are as important to a man as to a woman. Men will be astonished at the new developments recently introduced into the science of cooking, and they will become better acquainted with the new time and labor saving devices which invention has given the modern home-maker."

THE COOKING SCHOOL

We shall let William Russell Clark, editor of the Memphis Democrat, furnish the editorial comment for today. Mr. Clark wrote this editorial at the time the Cooking School was being held in Memphis:

Speaking of trials and tribulations, one of the choicest of occupations, that I know anything at all about is trying my darnedest to get a daily out. Cooking schools come only once a year; they don't last long and they bring good cheer, and every one of 'em goes over big, especially when there's Leona Rusk Ihrig, to talk and bake and fry and tease the folks she likes and tries to please.

I don't know nothin' about cooking meals, or cuttin' spuds or embalming eels, but take it from me I like to eat, to fill myself with cuts of meat. I'm a plum old fool for potato salad, if onions are out, and the seasoning's valid. Of all the confections I have to try, I cannot get off with apple pie, and rhubarb makes me kinder sick; it tastes so faint that my tongue gets thick.

And as for soup, I don't mind the noise; I can drink it thick and keep my poise. As concerns the fruits, I'll have a tomato. I can handle it like a well trained cantata. I like my ices and strawberry cream, but often mine's a raspberry dream. I've dreamed I've dwelt in marble halls; I like sad cake—the kind that falls.

But getting back to the job in hand of publishing a daily and fighting the sand, its a fine old task for a guy like me, whose used to gettin' out one a week, you see; there ain't no sleep and the press goes "bloody" and the staff gets nettled at printing my "hokey." The paper curls up and won't feed straight and the deadline's passed and we're two hours late.

The linotypes jam and the forms are pried and saints are remembered who long since died. The forms won't lock and the type won't fit and the devil hunts lice with a dose of filth. The foreman's cussin' and everybody's sore, an' they're yellin' for copy an' there ain't no more.

And then Mrs. Ihrig walks on the scene, a smilin' her smile and lookin' right keen. "I'm sure you boys have a glorious time, publishing a paper that should sell for a dime. I'm going to bring you something very good to eat." The presses start hummin' as we think of her treat. And dear public, you may think me a fool, but this is the way of a cooking school.

The Farm Board suggests that prosperity can be restored by every American taking an extra bite of meat at each meal. Then why not take two extra bites so everybody can have an extra car?

There are still a lot of people who can remember when a wife had to remove safety pins instead of a cigarette from her mouth before she could kiss her husband good-bye.

About the rarest thing in the world is a man so fine that a woman still can love him even while she is making over a last year's dress.

Nowadays the most common real estate transfer is that from the small boy's shoes to his mother's clean kitchen floor.

A lot of people seem to think that prosperous times are those when they are paying installments on ten things instead of one.

If you have anything good to say about your neighbor, tell him about it. That might induce him to keep mum about your faults.

Nothing much is ever done at a mass meeting except to give people who want to talk an opportunity to follow their inclination.

Why is it that when you try to answer the arguments of some men all you can think of to say is, "All right, have it your own way."

This would be a grand old world if April first was the only day in the year on which we could be fooled.

Any way you look at it, a ripple of laughter is worth a flood of tears.

Men may think that women do not make their own way, but they generally have it.

Competition may be the life of trade, but it certainly is the death of profit.

By RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington.—Sometime along toward the middle of the summer the politicians will start worrying about the negro vote.

They usually do in any contest that looks as if it might be close, and the friends and leaders of the negro race have been prophesying that there will be more than the usual reason for concern in 1932 because the negro is becoming increasingly independent and articulate in those states where he is permitted to use the ballot.

Any time they begin voting as a group the negroes will theoretically hold a balance of power between the majority parties in several states—13 states, according to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which lists them as Delaware, Illinois, Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri, Massachusetts, New York, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia, and New Jersey—with a total of 187 electoral votes.

The Rascob Gesture

The Republican party has generally considered the negro vote as its own. Democratic Chairman John J. Rascob made some attempt to organize it for his party in 1928, but the results were inconclusive. Now the N. A. A. C. P. is trying to get it out of the Republican camp and use it, not for the Democrats, but as an independent force which can be wielded for the benefit of the race.

It is contended that the negroes, since they are normally employed in greater proportion than whites and nearly all dependent on wages, have been suffering disproportionately during the depression. They are being urged to vote with special reference to social or economic measures such as unemployment relief, old age insurance, enfranchisement and abolition of lynching.

The Parker Case

The most convincing demonstration of any stirring of negro political consequences thus far observed came with the rejection of President Hoover's nomination of Judge John J. Parker to the supreme court. Walter White, secretary of the association, started a lot of people here in the demonstration of pressure politics which he exerted on northern senators from states with large colored populations during the preliminary lobbying against Parker. White apparently caused several senatorial votes to switch.

The N. A. A. C. P. cites the defeat of ex-Senator Baird of New Jersey when he ran for governor, claiming evidence of an overwhelming negro vote against him because of his vote for Parker in the Senate.

Capper's Advice

Meanwhile Congress continues to have a negro member and there are negroes in the Illinois and New York legislatures. There are congressional districts in three or four other northern states where the colored vote comes close to a majority of better.

The negro press, it is said, shows an increasing disposition to support colored candidates when other candidates of the regular parties do not suit it.

No Enthusiasm for Hoover

White says negroes are no longer succumbing to "blandishments and lies of professional politicians, white or black," and predicts that they will "come into their own in this year of depression." He says neither party appears to be going to present a candidate who stirs negro enthusiasm.

Hoover, according to negro leaders at the recent N. A. A. C. P. convention here who might or might not be able to swerve the race for its traditional Republican path, has caused resentment by dealing with lily-white southern Republicans, by refusing to consider appointing negroes to office, by the Parker nomination, through the War Department's "jim crowing" of Gold Star mothers and the suffering of negroes from unemployment and depression.

The Roosevelt Angle

Also, they say, negroes remember that Governor Franklin Roosevelt wrote the constitution of Haiti after directing the invasion of that black republic by marines, who are still there.

In the south, where the situation differs from that in the north in various ways, there is a considerable belief that such states as Indiana, Illinois and Ohio will eventually become Democratic if negroes undertake to exercise independent power.

"Greatest Show on Earth" Isn't Circus; It's National Political Convention

SHOWS that out-Barnum Barnum, are the American nominating conventions. Indeed, the great showman's three-ring circus was a Sunday School picnic compared with the American political convention, with its one or more rings supplied by each of the states, plus unnumbered side-shows staged in 10,000 far-flung caucuses, primaries and local conventions.

And for noise, confusion and general chaos, circuses just aren't one-two-three with those quadrennial political scrambles.

At one time in America's history, early in the 19th century, conventions were conducted with order and decorum. In those days leading men in the two parties met to settle nominations and party business without the slightest co-operation of the people. Not very democratic, incidentally. The present method, with all its faults, still is greatly influenced by public opinion.

It was not until 1860 that the national conventions took on those features which have made a debacle out of what should be an orderly, efficient business meeting of the people's delegates.

At the 1860 Chicago convention which nominated Abraham Lincoln, the spectators, outnumbering the delegates five to one, inaugurated a practice their successors have since followed. Ardent supporters of the leading candidates, they cheered on signal and kept on cheering until death or nomination seemed about to ensue.

With the naming of candidates, prolonged cheering contests started. When the nomination of William H. Seward, Lincoln's chief rival, was made, pandemonium broke loose. "The effect was startling," says one who was present. "Hundreds of persons stopped their ears in pain. The shouting was absolutely frantic, shrill and wild. No Comanches, no panthers ever screamed with more infernal intensity."

Then Lincoln's nomination was made. "The uproar," we are told again, "was beyond description. The Lincoln boys . . . gave a concentrated shriek that was positively awful."

Some idea of the bedlam which reigns at most national political conventions may be gained from the picture above. It shows part of the demonstration which took place just after the placing of the nomination of Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover for presidency, at the 1928 G. O. P. convention at Kansas City.

Since the Lincoln convention, this practice of packing the hall with noise demons seems to have continued. These fakera not only seek to sway the delegates; they also try to hypnotize and seduce enthusiastic spectators into outbreaks.

The hysterical tension of past conventions has many times been lightened by humorous occurrences. A story is told of the late Senator Albert J. Beveridge. Anxious to get the 1912 Bull Moose convention started, Beveridge spent some time looking for the chaplain who was to open the meeting. Finally, anxious and profane, he roared: "Where is that blanketyblank preacher! We want him to start his prayer!" At the same convention many a Gentile was moved to tears of merriment by the spectacle of the staunch old Hebrew, Oscar Strauss, singing "Onward Christian Soldiers" with all his might.

To make our conventions orderly and efficient, the immediate problem is, apparently, to bring the primary and the convention into a better relationship. One political writer believes that both national conventions and presidential primary should be retained, but their relations should be reversed.

Thus, the national convention would draft the party platform and select several names to be submitted to the party voters at the ensuing primary. The aspirants receiving the highest and second highest number of votes there would under this plan become the presidential and vice-presidential candidates.

American Legion Getting Ready for Big State Meeting

Andy Walsh, Commander of the local Palo Duro Post of the American Legion, is in receipt of information from the headquarters for the 14th annual State convention of the American Legion of Texas, to be held in Corpus Christi on August 1, 2 and 3rd, that State Commander V. Earl Earp of Sweetwater, after a conference in Corpus Christi this week, has stated that plans for the convention have been unusually mapped out and are progressing in a most satisfactory manner.

Earp, together with State Adjutant R. O. Whitaker, and Mrs. Van Stewart of Perryton, State president of the Legion Auxiliary and Mrs. C. J. Austin of Austin, secretary, met with convention arrangements committees in Corpus Christi last week, it was stated.

With the business sessions to be held in a huge pavilion built over the water in the heart of the north beach playground, and one of the city's first class hotels located just across the beach from the pavilion, affording committee room facilities near the convention hall, Commander Earp states it affords one of the most comfortable and unique convention halls he has seen in Texas.

"It is my opinion," stated Adjutant Whitaker, "that the Corpus Christi convention will be one of the largest attended we have ever had; because of the opportunity Corpus Christi offers the summer visitor to take advantage of an economical vacation in the many splendid tourist camps and hotels, it is my belief many of the delegates to the convention will bring their families for the pleasures of swimming, fishing, boat riding, etc., while they attend the convention sessions. The Corpus Christi boys are working enthusiastically on their convention plans and have the wholehearted support of their business leaders."

Mrs. Van Stewart was highly elated over the splendid manner in which the Corpus Christi Auxiliary committees have mapped their plans and stated she was positive the numerous boat rides and other entertainment features to be given convention delegates will cause a large attendance of Auxiliary members.

SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY.

When he discovered the X-rays more than 30 years ago Roentgen predicted that they would be an aid to both the physician and the manufacturer. Flesh is so easily penetrated by the rays that medicine profited by Roentgen's discovery sooner than industry. Not until Dr. W. D. Coolidge devised the powerful tube that bears his name was it possible for the X-rays to become a valuable testing tool in the hands of the conscientious manufacturer.

That the X-rays have other than surgical and therapeutic uses the public learned when cocksure experts differed on the authenticity of a few reputed old paintings. There was no denying the faces and ornaments underlying older layers of paint mercilessly exposed by the radiograph. This success in the field of art doubtlessly had much to do with the application of the all-seeing X-rays in industry.

With the powerful apparatus now in use it is possible to penetrate three inches of steel and to trace the course of water pipes and electric wiring concealed in thick walls. Both raw material and finished product can be examined for hidden defects. Roentgenology contributes to industrial safety, safe communication whether by motor, rail or air and to manufacturers of quality.

Few know that the X-ray makes possible keener and more durable razor blades, safer and better automobile axles and crankshafts and better golf balls.

Fly Sky-High On Honeymoon

Half way around the world, on a flying honeymoon, Herr and Frau Ulrich Richter, young German couple shown above, stopped off at Wichita, Kan. They crossed the Atlantic by ship and are flying to the west coast to embark for China. They hope to be back in Munich, their home, by October, and win the 1932 Hindenburg prize offered for the most distance covered by a light plane during the year.

"Lady Lindy" Lands in Erin

For the first time in the history of transatlantic plane flights, a woman has completed the trip alone. She is Amelia Earhart Putnam, shown above. Starting out in her trim monoplane, from Harbor Grace, N. F., Amelia negotiated the trying flight and landed in Farmer Henry Gallagher's pasture, four miles from Londonderry, Ireland. She set a new time record for the flight, making about 2000 miles in 14 hours and 54 minutes.

It is said that some birds sing without opening their bills. Most everyone here would be singing, waistband to follow suit, too, if they didn't have to open their bills.

As a man's bank account increases, there is a tendency for his waistband to follow suit.

WHAT OTHER PEOPLE THINK.

Statesmen alone cannot solve the problems which arise in international affairs. The nations must become accustomed to look to the organized system of the expert report, which gives a just and impartial lead to governments, and public opinion and should be regularly accepted just as judicial decisions are accepted as a matter of course.—General Jan Smuts, South African leader.

Women frighten me.—Charles Rogers, former movie actor.

Rudy is just an ordinary man to me.—Mrs. Rudy Vallee.

In America . . . the owners of industry have sacked the richest continent in the world, sold gold brick after gold brick to the producers whom they needed to grow the wheat and the hogs, to drill the oil well and run the adding machines, and buy the Fords and the stocks.—John Dos Passos, novelist.

Unless the people take the matter into their own hands and refuse to manufacture arms, transport materials or serve in the armies, they are not likely to avert another disaster.—Dr. Albert Einstein, scientist.

In order that railroad transportation may be placed on the most efficient and economical basis, the consolidation of railroads should be advanced with all possible speed.—Resolution adopted by U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

THINK AGAIN, MA'AM.

Friend: Say, there's a bunch of people outside waiting to see you. Among them is a bishop who says he married you some time ago.

Film Actress: Gee! I'm practically certain I never married a bishop.—Montreal Star.

It would be a fine thing if all wives would remember that keeping a husband in hot water doesn't make him tender.

HOME ECONOMICS EXPERT EXPLAINS WHY GAS IS BEST FOR COOKING

MRS. LEONA RUSK IHRIG has many interesting things to tell the housewives. Be sure to attend the Cooking School each day.

I KNOW just how most women feel. They want everything that is put on their tables from the T-Bone Steak to the last recipe for lemon cream pie to have that full-flavored deliciousness which comes of perfect cooking. Sooner or later they are going to own the range which seems most capable of doing this very thing.

Anyone who has made a study of Modern Gas Ranges will agree that they are designed purposely for people who are "fussy" about foods. The Cooking Top and the Insulated Oven will give you fine shades of heat that are not possible in other types of cooking equipment. The Gas Valve Handle is such a simple thing to look at. But it will give you variations in temperature which cannot be duplicated elsewhere!

I do all my cooking on one of the newest Gas Ranges and I will defy anyone to show me how its convenience, economy and food flavoring can be improved upon!

PUTTING ONE OVER ON WM.

W. S. Gilbert of light opera fame was always full of whimsies. At the Garrick Club one evening he made the astounding statement that Shakespeare was a very obscure writer. His statement was immediately protested by most of those present, and he was asked to prove it.

"Well," said Gilbert, "what do you make of this passage?"

"I would as lief be thrust thru a quickset hedge as cry 'plish to a callow trostle!'"

"There's nothing obscure in that," said one member. "It's perfectly clear. Here's a man, a great lover of the feathered songsters, who rather than disturb the carolling of the little warbler prefers to go through the intense pain of thrusting himself through a thorny hedge. But I don't know that passage. In what play does it occur?"

"In no play," said Gilbert. "I've just invented it. And jolly good Shakespeare, too!"—New York Morning Telegraph.

PAPER BEST AD MEDIUM.

"The newspaper of today is the best friend the retail store advertising business has, and always has been the best advertising medium which stores can possibly employ," writes Kenneth Collins, executive vice president and publicity director of R. H. Macy & Company, in his book called 'The Road to Good Advertising.'

"I am constantly being attacked by direct-mail advertisers others for this point of view," Collins says. "If I am wrong, then nearly every store in America is wrong. With hardly an exception they all spend by far the greatest portion of their advertising money in the newspaper. And a quarter of a million merchants in the United States can't all be wrong."

NUMEROLOGY

By Alice Denton Jennings

If you were born on the 2nd, 11th, 20th, 29th of any month, your number is Two, and you will find the days of the month most fortunate for you to be the 2nd, 11th, 20th, or 29th, with 1, 4, 7, 10th, 13th, 16th, 19th, 22nd, 25th, 28th and 31st as interchangeable number.

As a number Two person, you will find the following years of your life the most eventful, 2nd, 7th, 11th, 16th, 20th, 25th, 29th, 34th, 38th, 43rd, 47th, 52nd, 56th and 70th.

You will find the most fortunate or "lucky" days of the week to be Sunday, Monday and Friday. This is especially true if one of your own numbers should fall on these days, as for instance, the 2nd, 11th, 20th or 29th, and next, the interchangeable numbers (given above).

Those who have number Two as their number are usually found to be gentle by nature, imaginative, artistic and sometimes romantic. Your qualities are more on the mental than the physical plane.

You should marry a number Seven person. That is, one born on the 7th, 16th, or 25th of any month.

The number Two person often make good accountants and some times writers. The women make excellent mothers.

The chief faults that should be guarded against are—being restless and unsettled. Lack of continuity in your plans and ideas, and lack of self confidence.

You are inclined to be over sensitive, and often get despondent and melancholy too easily.

You will find it better to wear, as nearly as possible, shades of green, from the lightest to the darkest. Also cream and white, but avoid dark colors, especially purple and black. It is lucky to carry a piece of jade always, and, if possible, next to the skin. Some important people born under the Number Two include:

Marion Antoinette, born November 2nd, represents 2.

Gladstone, born December 29th, represents 2.

Napoleon III, born April 20th, represents 2.

Edison, born February 11th, represents 2.

Mrs. Ihrig Pleased With Co-Operation
in Getting Started

Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig was highly pleased when she arrived in Canyon to find everything in readiness for the Cooking School which started this afternoon at the American Legion Hall.

"The sponsoring newspaper usually put off all arrangements until I arrive, and then has to make a wild scramble to handle the details," stated Mrs. Ihrig. "I found the stage prepared, and the equipment ready for the lay-out when I arrived," said Mrs. Ihrig. "We are about 24 hours in advance of usual preparations for a Cooking School, and it certainly looks good."

Mrs. Ihrig visited in a number of business houses yesterday and expressed great appreciation of the courtesies shown by Canyon merchants. "The weather is certainly ideal," she stated, "and I hope it will continue so that all of the women of Canyon will be able to attend the five meetings of the School."

CUSTODIAN SAYS ROAD TO PARK IS IN GOOD SHAPE

"The roads to the Palo Duro Free Park are in excellent condition despite the heavy rains of the last few days," says Ray V. Davis, custodian of the park.

"Many people have hesitated making a visit to the park waiting for the roads to dry thoroughly," he continued, "however, this is not necessary as the plains roads dry quickly and the road to the park is in good condition for travel."

No Rest for the Plump, Is Paris Edict

PARISIAN OFFERINGS FEATURE EMPHASIS OF SLIM LINES, WHITE AND PASTEL COLORS, AND SHORTER SKIRTS

BY HARRIET

FROM Paris comes the word that, if one is to judge by its latest creations, there is no indication of a respite for the feminine world as far as keeping slim is concerned.

The slim line dress, molding the body to just below the hips, is the basic theme of Worth's mid-season collection. This slender effect is emphasized, of course, by the use of the bias cut, but anything superfluous either in the form of width or trimming, seems definitely out.

For day wear, white and delicate chalky pastels are featured. A dress of pale yellow, a suit in pastel blue, are charming for a hot summer day in town. Printed frocks worn under dark coats, with glimpses of the print at the sleeves and the coat, very slender, barely meeting in front to show the dress, are excellent choices for the busy modern woman.

Then there are a number of more brilliant-hued coats in yellow and red, for example, that can be worn with a colored or a white dress, because white is going to be very smart for town wear this summer.

Gay little jackets top simple white frocks for the country or the beach, but many of these are longer than last year and bear a close resemblance to the cardigan of old. Skirts are definitely shorter, and just full enough to ensure comfort. Twin inverted pleats both at the front and back of the skirt attached to the hip-yoke seem a favored theme for these utility frocks.

Worth offers, as suitable for the beach, this charming sports suit in navy and white shantung. Gilt buttons and a gilt chain belt complete the outfit.

STRIPED fabrics, many of them silk voiles, are featured for summer evenings. Pin stripes, candy stripes and wavy lines are all there. Skirts are long, formal gowns have a train, and the bodice fits the figure snugly in the approved brassiere manner. Decolletes are high for the informal type of gown, the draped neckline is still shown and all the mouseline frocks have wide skirts gathered on to the yoke all the way around. A good deal of chalk white is shown, too, for both formal and informal wear, and there are a few cotton crepons.

One of the new departures offered by Lyolene of Paris is sweaters and blouses of handknit wool mesh, worn inside the skirt, which continues to be high-waisted. Another interesting note is that the lining of the Lyolene town, and some of her sport coats, is done in printed foulard, disposed in such a way as to provide a frame for the dress when the coat is opened. A scarf of the same material nearly always completes the coat.

Both Lyolene and Boreas, another Paris house, offer new redingote coats, which will evidently last well into the fall. Skirts offered by Boreas are shorter for day wear and noticeably longer for evening, but so trim. The line throughout is slim, almost straight, and the waist inclined to be high.

Incidentally, a color that Boreas foresees as the great success of the next style season is a golden shimmer velvet.

MAY FOOT, STRAW FOOT.

Then there's the one about the director who was having difficulty with a troop of extras recruited for a parade scene in a war film currently in production.

"When I was a little boy," said the director sweetly, "my mother told me not to cry when I lost my wooden soldiers. 'Some day, Johnny, dear,' she said, 'you will get those wooden soldiers back.'"

Then with a full parade-ground roar he bellowed, "And believe me, you wooden-headed scarecrows, that day has come!"—New York Morning Telegraph.

U. S. Pathologist
Studying Wheat
Foot Rot Here

Dr. Lytton W. Boyles, pathologist for the United States Department of Agriculture, stationed at Manhattan, Kansas, and assigned to study of wheat diseases in the Southwest has been in Canyon since Saturday.

He is here making a study of the wheat foot-rot in the county. A series of experiments have been under way in the county since last fall and are being conducted in co-operation with County Agent W. H. Upchurch.

Wheat foot-rot has been widely scattered over the county as a result of the high winds and sand storms of this spring, it is claimed. This disease in wheat has reached a point where it needs very serious consideration, Dr. stated.

The experiment in this county is one of only a few being conducted in the Panhandle.

The COUNTY The COLLEGE And CANYON
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

FRED E. WORTHAM, Secretary

The greatest problem before this organization and should be the major problem of all public spirited citizens of the community and this entire section of the State, is to do all within its power to see that the $25,000 goal of the museum fund is reached before the deadline.

This is a project, which when completed, will mean much not only to the present but will be invaluable to the future generations. It is a living monument to the past and an open record for the future. The completion of the museum building should vitally concern every citizen of the Texas Panhandle, who is in any way interested in public enterprises.

This is not merely for Canyon alone, but it is for the entire section of the country. Canyon being the logical headquarters for such an institution, she was designated as the point for the museum. Interest in the museum has already been shown by citizens of other states in the Southwest.

Time has come when every shoulder must be placed to the wheel.

A national business writer says, "The sales executive of 1932 must accept present conditions and obstacles as normal and must build on that basis."

If burning credit gasoline in installment cars over bonded highways is prosperity, this country is still very, very prosperous.

The Nation's Business has this to say regarding the rural sections of the country: "In democracy should we not expect leadership at the grass roots and the cross roads?"

"At the grass roots and cross roads, America is at work. Millions of Americans are convinced that for most of the things that really matter in this life, the progress of today lies in the work of today. To them, America is still the mail address of Opportunity."

"Possibly it is true that the pattern of prosperity is made by the big money makers and the big money spenders. Yet it is just as demonstrable that the basic fiber of the country is best revealed in a slump."

A columnist—
In the San Francisco News—
Has related a story about Pelicans—

Which is very timely and quite interesting—

Here is the story—

For years the pelicans in Santa Monica Bay—

Had been fed by fishermen from their surplus catch—

Until they got the habit of eating without work—

This year high seas and changing currents off Santa Monica cut down the catch—

And the fishermen no longer had any fish to spare—

They noticed that the pelicans languished and grew thin—

And it dawned on them that the pelicans had forgotten how to fish for themselves—

So they went down the coast and found some pelicans who had never been ruined by easy living and free fish—

They turned them loose among the starving birds, who sat about the beach and complained of the depression—

The way those imported pelicans went out after their own fish was an eye-opener—

Pretty soon the hungry birds quit watching and tried it themselves—

They discovered there were plenty of fish in the sea for the bird with energy—

And they have quit talking about the depression.

Offer Extra Music Courses This Summer

Teachers whose work includes public school music will have unusual opportunities at the college this summer, for two methods courses which have not been given recently in the summer will be offered.

These courses are numbered 210 and 220 and are taught by Miss Ada Clark, whose work in this field received special attention when she attended Peabody college. The 210 course deals with materials and methods of music for the grades and 220 covers the high school field.

These courses were offered in order to take care of the demand created by combining subjects in connection with the economy programs being carried out.

Indications are that the music department will be very full this summer.

Taxpayers to Hold Meeting Thursday Night This Week

Failing to secure a large attendance of the members as desired, The Randall County Taxpayers League decided Saturday afternoon to hold a night meeting this week, and selected Thursday night at the court house as the time of the next meeting. A large number of the advisory committee was present Saturday afternoon for the first time.

W. T. LYCEUM COURSES TO BE UNUSUAL

ROLAND PEASE WILL BE PRESENTED JUNE 14.

Men's Chorus, V. L. Granville and Don Blanding Number Among Those to Appear.

The summer lyceum attractions, offered through the College, are unusually attractive this year, the first being Roland Pease, American Bass-baritone who will be presented June 14. Mr. Pease will be accompanied by his daughter, Miss Margaret Pease, who is herself a talented pianist and delightful accompanist.

The Men's Chorus of the Milwaukee Teachers College will come to Canyon on June 30, bringing a program of more than usual interest and variety. Canyon has heard few courses of this kind and this one will be welcomed as one of the summer numbers.

V. L. Granville, whose Dramatic Interludes have delighted hundreds here in years past, will be here again this summer. Miss Mary Morgan Brown says that his program is of special value to students of speech, and his fine reading will be a treat to all who hear him. Mr. Granville, who is an English actor, applies his makeup for his characterizations before his audience, thus giving many pointers on this subject, and being at the same time highly entertaining. Mr. Granville comes July 7.

On July 20, Don Blanding, poet, author and vagabond, will lecture, probably on his life in the Hawaiian Islands. "Those who know him say that his talk will be a delight, regardless of his subject. Don Blanding has seen the world with the keen joy of traveller who goes about in a leisurely way, seeing the things that are missed by those whose minds are intent upon their destinations."

"Broken Dishes," a sparkling comedy by the author of "The Criminal Code," will be given

August 17 by the Bergmann Players. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Osgood, formerly of Canyon saw this play last winter and recommended it very highly. Martin Flavin, the author has written a number of very successful plays. The Bergmann company comes with a splendid record.

All of the lyceum numbers are a part of the service the college students receive upon payment of the optional fee of $6.00. The cost to others will be very moderate this summer in order that townspeople may enjoy these affairs.

Canyon Plans to Help Entertain Insurance Agents

The Chamber of Commerce will assist the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce in entertaining the visiting delegates to the Texas Insurance Agents Association which meets in Amarillo Thursday and Friday of this week.

On Friday morning it has been arranged to conduct a group of the visiting insurance men and their wives on a trip to the Palo Duro Park and through the museum rooms at the college.

The party will arrive in Canyon about 9:30 Friday morning headed by S. J. Cole and Frank Ford of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce and will go directly to the park. Following the visit to the park, the visitors will be brought back to the College where they will be conducted through the museum rooms.

According to W. L. Day, assistant manager of the Amarillo Chamber this trip will be one of the highlights of the entertainment for the visiting insurance agents.

Plainview Bank Case Set Trial for June 8th

PLAINVIEW, June 4.—Judge Wm. H. Atwell in federal district court at Lubbock yesterday set for trial on June 8 the case of Hale County et al. vs. the Plainview National Bank, four of its officers, its receiver and ten surety companies. The court sustained a plea of the defendant bonding companies on a question of misjoinder (an incorrect union of persons or causes of action in the suit) and dismissed the suits as to the five independent and nineteen common school districts of Hale County which joined the county in the suits. The claims of these districts totals in excess of forty thousand dollars.

The petition of the county stated that the bank, as principal, and other defendants, as sureties, were indebted to the county and school districts in the sum of $309,244.89, less amounts realized from the sale of sureties. The amount actually at stake, since the cause of the schools was dismissed, exceeds $200,000, attorneys in the case stated.

Colleges, when the two Abilene institutions withdrew recently.
Only four colleges, the West
Texas State Teachers, Canyon;
Daniel Baker, Brownwood; Sul
Ross Teachers, Alpine; and the College of Arts and Industries, Kingsville, constitute the T. I. A. A. organization as it now stands.
Of the four it is possible that only three of them will be able to compete regularly because of the vast distances from one to another. The location of the Kingsville college to the other institutions of the association makes it exceedingly costly to play games either at home or away.

Daniel Baker and the West Texas Teachers are the only two of the four which have been serious rivals in collegiate sports during recent years. Sul Ross has never offered very serious competition to either of them. The Kingsville college has always been rated as one of the weaker members of the association when it covered the entire state. Thus, should the T.
I. A. A. remain as an organization of only four colleges it appears likely that the Brownwood and Canyon schools will battle it out for conference leadership.

A number of colleges in Texas have at one time or another been affiliated with the T. I. A. A. which practically covered all of Texas as its territory. Gradually a number of the former members have advanced into higher company. Last year five colleges in the eastern part of the state withdrew to form the Lone Star Conference. The advancement of the two Abilene institutions into Texas Conference rating leaves only the four members.

The 1932 fall football schedule will be played according to previous arrangement, states D. A.
Shirley, president of T. I. A. A. and registrar of the West Texas college. At a recent meeting of the executive committee of T. I.
A. A. it was decided to allow the future of the association to be determined at the annual meeting of the conference in December.

At various times in recent years the formation of a new conference of West Texas colleges has been urged, but heretofore no definite plans have been brought forward for such an organization, although several meetings of interested colleges have been held. Perhaps the latest such move was sponsored by Texas Technological College, which has since joined another conference.

RANDALL H. I. A. CLOSES TEST YEAR IN MAY

LARGEST HONOR ROLL IN HISTORY OF ASSOCIATION.

Registered Jersey Is High Cow for Second Consecutive Month With 80.1 lbs. B. F.

The close of the testing year for the Randall County Herd Improvement Association ended with the month of May and it was unusually outstanding as it marked the largest Honor Roll since the Association was organized several years ago.

One hundred thirteen cows produced either 1,000 pounds of milk, 40 pounds of butterfat to earn recognition on the honor roll of the association, according to figures released this week by C. B. Ray, official tester for the association.

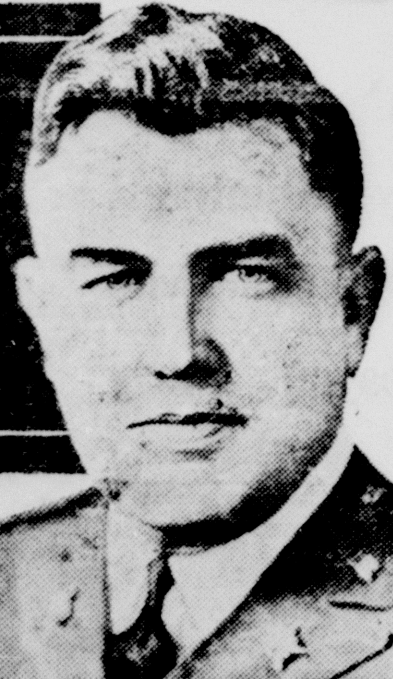

Thirteen herds of the association were represented on the honor list. The Tierra Blanca Jersey Farm herd, grabbed the heaviest honors with 29 cows making the required production and furnished the high butterfat producing cow for the second consecutive month. The cow, Gambo's King's Vesta, a registered Jersey, produced 1792 pounds of milk and 80.1 pounds of butterfat.

Heart, a grade Holstein, from the herd of J. E. Dickenson, was high milk producing cow for May with a production of more than a ton of milk. The production of 2015 pounds of milk, contained 68.5 pounds of butterfat which was the fourth highest production of butterfat in the association for the month.

The complete records for the month's roll, as compiled by Mr. Ray are:

Certified Seed Is Selling Fast This Spring

There remains only between 3,000 and 4,000 pounds of the certified seed, being sold to farmers in the county at cost, which has not been sold, it was stated Monday morning. This seed is being distributed by the county agent and handled through a special fund of the Chamber of Commerce.

It is expected that the seed will be cleared out by June 15. A large amount of the seed was sold yesterday due to the fact that the heavy rains of the week end will force a number of farmers to plant their fields a second time.

Seed delivered to the county agent for resale at cost this year amounts to 31,275 pounds.

The project of the Chamber of Commerce in selling certified seed to the farmers of the county thru the co-operation of the county agent is in its fifth season. It is interesting to note the increase in the demand by farmers of the county for good seed.

The work was started in the spring of 1928 with the purchase and resale of 7,500 pounds. The following list shows the rapid increase in the number of pounds handled:

1928	7,500 pounds
1929	7,500 pounds
1930	14,600 pounds
1931	18,000 pounds
1932	31,275 pounds

This year the varieties of seed handled were: Texas Blackhull Kafir, Hegari, Dwarf Yellow Milo, Wheatland Milo and Sumac Sorghum.

POOR SERVANT

"I think a politician should not be the dictator of the people, but the people's servant."

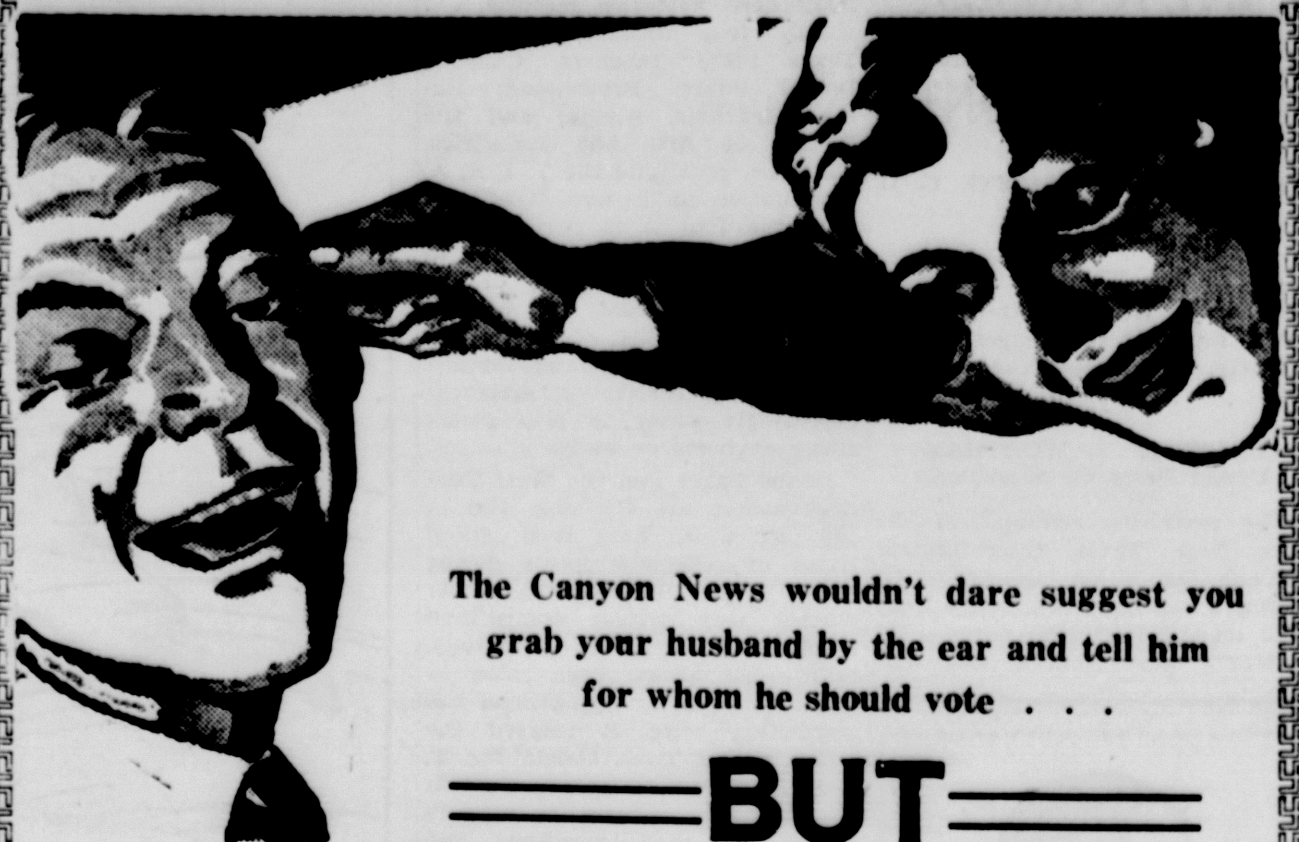

"Ah, not servant. They stick with us too long for that."

According to a London doctor, the deaf are good auto drivers. Why shouldn't they be? They don't have to listen to advice from the rear.

Plane Television Successful

When the face of the pretty girl appeared in the television receiver, an experiment which may change all present methods of land to plane communication was marked successful. This picture was hurried into the ether from a ground transmitter by an electrical charge of 150 watts on the ultra-high frequency of 44,500 kilocycles, to a passenger plane flying at 6000 feet. Harry R. Lubcke, radio technical engineer, is shown observing the test.

The Canyon News wouldn't dare suggest you grab your husband by the ear and tell him for whom he should vote . . .

BUT WE DO SAY THIS

consider these candidates for office and here's why:

In bringing to Canyon Mrs. Leona Rusk Irig, nationally known Culinary Expert, for The News Free Cooking School, the newspaper underwrote all expenses—a considerable sum—in the belief that the Cooking School would be worth many times its cost. Undoubtedly it is, but some one has to foot the bills.

These Candidates for elective office believe the Cooking School is a wonderful help to the people of Canyon and Randall County. They are defraying a part of the expenses of the School and urge their friends and the public in general to attend every session. They are glad of the opportunity to help make possible this community event.

THESE CANDIDATES ARE HELPING TO MAKE YOUR COOKING SCHOOL POSSIBLE

It is with pleasure that I assist in bringing this fine school to Canyon. I trust that it will benefit the housewives of Canyon greatly.

WHAT SHALL WE HAVE FOR DINNER?

Contest Entries Must Be In 11:00 Friday

INTEREST IS SHOWN DAILY IN CONTEST
PRIZE CASH AWARDS TOTAL TWENTY DOLLARS.

Cakes and Pies Must Be Baked With Great West Flour Is Only Restriction.

Much interest has already been manifested in the News' Cake and Pie Contest with its valuable cash and flour prizes which are offered to the winners by the Great West Milling Company. Entries in the contest are to be made at the American Legion Hall Friday morning from 9 to 11 o'clock under the direction of members of the City Federation of Women's Clubs, the organization which is sponsoring the contest.

A total of $20 in cash awards, and 168 pounds of Great West flour will be distributed for the best pies and cakes.

The final time for entering pies and cakes in the contest has been set at 11 o'clock Friday morning. No entries will be received after that time.

First prize in the cake contest will be $10; second prize, $5; third 48 pounds of Great West flour; fourth, 24 pounds flour and fifth, 12 pounds of flour.

For the best pie $5 will be given. Second place will receive 48 pounds of Great West flour, third 24 pounds of flour, and fourth, 12 pounds of flour.

Only one restriction has been placed upon the cakes and pies entered—they must be baked with Great West flour. Any number of entries may be made by one person.

Members of the Federation of Women's Clubs are sponsoring the contest. Proceeds derived from the sale of the cakes and pies will be given to this organization.

The sale of the prize winning cakes and pies will be held in the American Legion Hall following the awarding of the prizes Friday afternoon. All those not sold on Friday will be on display and on sale at downtown stores Friday and Saturday.

Canyon cooks are urged to avail themselves of this excellent opportunity to win, with very little effort, either a welcome and sizeable cash gift, or a quantity of Great West flour.

Do not forget—the final time for entering cakes and pies in the contest is 11 o'clock Friday morning.

Bring the cakes to the Legion Hall where they will be tagged and judged. Winners will be announced following Friday's session of the cooking school.

State Patrolmen to Watch Weights on All the Trucks

Truckmen operating on the state highways will be subjected to close inspection by state highway patrolmen, and those trucks which are loaded more than 7,000 pounds will be ordered from the highway, and the owners arrested and prosecuted under the state law.

The law passed by the last session of the legislature has been held constitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States and about 500 injunctions secured in the state courts against its enforcement have been dissolved.

Three state highway patrolmen are working on the Panhandle highways and truck owners are warned to watch the loads of their trucks.

GOVERNOR STERLING TO OPEN CAMPAIGN SATURDAY

Governor R. S. Sterling will open his campaign for re-election as Governor of Texas at Waco Saturday.

Mr. Sterling has indicated that his platform will be chiefly that of responsible government vs. irresponsible government.

Chas. P. Stephenson returned Saturday from a trip to central Texas.

D. N. Cass and son, Roscoe, of Hereford were in the city this morning on business.

College Attendance Continues To Grow

District Candidates Filed Monday With County Chairman

Alfred M. Smith, chairman of the Randall County Democratic Executive committee, states that all district candidates filed with him for places on the July primary ballots before the closing time at midnight Monday.

Grady Hazlewood is the only candidate filing for the office of District Attorney. He has been assistant district attorney for the past three years.

Marvin Jones is unopposed as a candidate for re-election as congressman.

Senator Clint C. Small, serving his first term as State Senator, has filed for re-election. He will be opposed by Mayor Dave Shanks of Perryton.

Clyde W. Warwick, State Representative, will be opposed by H. K. Stanfield.

Mr. Smith will receive a certified list of state candidates from the state executive committee next Tuesday.

County and precinct candidates must file with Mr. Smith for places on the primary ballots on or before June 18. Many of the county candidates have already filed for places.

Second Half Taxes Coming in States Collector Jno. Fry

There was at least one happy man in Canyon this morning as he opened his mail. Most folks receive bills and more bills along about this time of the month, but John Fry is receiving cash, good old American dollars, as the second payment on taxes from those who took advantage of the split tax payments.

Mr. Fry received $2,054 in taxes this morning, which will help the pressure of both the county and state.

Wm. A. Fisher Asks Mr. Clark About Madrigals

William Arms Fisher, vice-president of the Oliver-Ditson Company, Boston, Massachusetts, has written Wallace R. Clark, head of the music department of the College, for information concerning music in the Madrigal Club Library which is owned by the College. Mr. Fisher was seeking to learn the name of the publisher of an old Madrigal by Orlando Lassus. Mr. Fisher had seen a copy of the program of the Madrigal Club concert, which was given in April. He realized that the Madrigal Library which contains thousands of pieces of music has valuable source material for the person interested in this form of music.

William Arms Fisher wrote the arrangement of "Goin' Home" with which the Madrigal Club program closed.

Legion Men and Ladies Will Add to Museum Fund

Both the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary will make contributions to the Museum Fund of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society before the drive for funds to erect the building is completed, it was stated this morning.

The definite amounts to be contributed by each organization is not determined at this time. However, it is expected that the contributions will be made possible some time next week.

The addition of these gifts will help to boost the fund nearer the goal of $25,000 which must be raised by July 1st.

Enrollment at the College continues to grow. The total up to noon today was 698.

Travis Shaw, business manager, expressed great pleasure at the increased enrollment, which is running ahead of the total of last year. With the continued rains, large numbers of students were unable to reach Canyon for the opening session, but will arrive in Canyon during this week. Class work started today.

Memphis Women Make Donation To Museum Fund

The 1913 Study Club of Memphis is the first women's club of that town to make a contribution to the building fund of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society.

Professor L. P. Sheffy, who is in charge of the campaign, has received this check, which will help to make up the amount which must be raised by July in order to save the $25,000 appropriation which is already available for the building.

Only about $3,000 is needed to complete the fund.

Bonus Marchers Not Favored By Palo Duro Post

In its regular meeting last night the Palo Duro Post Number 97, of the American Legion took a stand against the Bonus Marchers to the National Capitol. Andy Walsh, post commander announced this morning.

The local post went on record as disapproving the march to Washington by various members and groups of the American Legion from all parts of the country to make a demand on Congress for an immediate payment of a cash bonus.

Members of the American Legion here are of the opinion that such action on the part of some few individuals will do more injury to the cause for the payment of the compensation certificates, referred to as a "cash bonus" payment, than help in securing the proper legislation.

"The local post went on record a few weeks ago favoring the payment of the bonus by Congress if at all possible without detriment to the whole nation," stated Mr. Walsh.

INSTALL NEW VENTILATION SYSTEM AT THE OLYMPIC

Work is in progress at the Olympic Theatre installing a new ventilating system, states W. J. Wooten, owner. The new system will be completed during this week, and will give the theatre a most efficient cooling system for the summer months.

C. M. Hunsaker, district manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., was a business caller in the city this morning.

CANYON, TEXAS, JUNE 8, 1932

Rain Covers County Yesterday Evening

Another good rain fell in Randall county yesterday evening.

This time the rain gauge registered 28 of an inch, which added to the 258 inch rain for the week end makes a total of 2.86 for the present five days.

Wheat, oats and barley will be greatly benefitted by the good rains of this week, state those who have watched the development of the past week. About half of the wheat was lost entirely by the drought and high winds this spring. Of the remaining crop, more than half will make an excellent crop, state those who have been over the county. It is likely that some of the wheat which is being saved will not make much of a yield as weeds will grow rapidly following the heavy rains.

Texas Press Will Meet Thursday for Its Annual Session

The Texas Press Association will meet at Mineral Wells tomorrow for its 53rd annual meeting.

Clyde W. Warwick, publisher of The Canyon News, has been assigned a place on the program for Friday afternoon, but on account of the Cooking School will be unable to attend the meeting.

It was presented by the following: Shirley Shook, Winston Wofford, Elizabeth and Jewel Faulkner, Gwendolyn Black, Chas. Kiker, Emmett Smith, Guinn Casey, Helen Johnson, Sue Gates, Malcolm Hunt, Carrie Jane Wade and Rev. C. E. Jameson with Miss Lowes as director.

In order to get one of these prizes each woman is required to register at the door, and to register promptly at the opening of the school at 2 o'clock. The boxes will be closed at 2:15.

Dr. J. A. Hill Gives Address At Olton H. S.

Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the West Texas State Teachers College, delivered the commencement address at Olton June 6, to a class of twenty-eight. There were 1200 people in the audience. Olton has a population of 600, but the independent school district is a large one. Seventeen busses are used each school day to transport 303 pupils from outside the town. H. P. Webb is superintendent of the school which has twenty-two teachers.

Dr. Hill was accompanied to Olton by Supt. Lee Gilmore of Wheeler.

Hog and Dairy Men Being Fed at McSpadden's

Hog and dairy breeders of the Panhandle are being entertained today at a barbecue at the McSpadden Tierra Blanca Farm east of Canyon. John Snider, barbecue king, who has just returned from Washington, is in charge of the big feed.

Invitations were sent to about 500 breeders of the Plains, but the heavy rains kept many of them from attending the meeting today.

Mrs. Ihrig Will Tell What Is The Best INTEREST GROWING

Cooking School Drawing Large Number of Women Daily at American Legion Hall With Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig in Charge—Women are Invited to Attend Daily.

"WHAT SHALL WE HAVE FOR DINNER?"

A few of the answers to this all important question which is asked daily in every household in the nation will be supplied by Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig at the third session of the Canyon News' annual cooking school at the American Legion Hall Thursday afternoon.

Balanced menus, approved by dieticians, consisting of tasty and healthful combinations, will be presented. Mrs. Ihrig also will introduce several new methods of preparing well known foods so as to avoid the monotonous repetition of the same dishes.

An intensely interested audience numbering more than 500 listened to Mrs. Ihrig this afternoon as she discussed the fine points of cake baking. While baking her Great West and K. C. everyday cake, the demonstrator indicated the new methods of combining and mixing the ingredients.

Countless questions were proposed by the members of the audience. Mrs. Ihrig gladly abandoned her scheduled program to settle every problem in the art of making a good cake.

No little amount of interest in cake baking has been aroused by the cake and pie baking contest sponsored by the City Federation of Women's Clubs. More than 75 entries already have been promised, and as many more are expected to register cakes at the school Friday morning.

Members of the City Federation will receive the cakes and pies at the schools from 9 until 11 o'clock Friday morning. Winners of the prizes offered by the Great West Mill will be announced at the conclusion of Mrs. Ihrig's final discussion. The prize entries will then be sold. Proceeds of the sale will be given to the City Federation.

More than 50 women received attendance prizes at the school this afternoon. Through the generosity of Canyon merchants and national advertisers the prize list is exceptionally large.

In her lecture today on "What We Eat and Why," Mrs. Ihrig discussed the component elements of food, their value to the body and the importance of including those elements in the daily diet.

"Too many people think of food as just something to eat," Mrs. Ihrig said. "Food is more than that. Food is any substance which when taken into the body will build new tissue, repair old tissue, furnish heat and energy and enter into and stimulate the chemical processes which occur in the normal human body.

"The stomach is the basis of our existence. It is the source of strength or weakness, of health or disease, of gaiety or melancholy. We do everything by, for, and through the stomach. Yet the two operations, that of preparing and eating of food are those to which many people devote the least consideration.

In speaking of the modern home maker Mrs. Ihrig declared:

"The responsibilities of the homemaker increase daily. She is not only purchasing agent, dietitian, but scientist, mechanic and other positions too numerous to mention. The job of making a home is the largest single industry in the world.

"For a long time it was taken for granted. Now science, invention and system have come to its aid. More care is given to training the girl for the job of being a wife than for the other careers to which girls aspire. Since 85 per cent of the earnings of the United States is spent by women, it is necessary to have some knowledge of the proper way to spend. Scientific spending is saving."

Mrs. Ihrig continued the discussion by pointing out the need of a knowledge of quality of foods, and of the most economical methods of preparing them.

"Science aids the cooks in other ways, too," she said. "Chemists bacteriologists, dieticians work endlessly to improve the health and happiness of the individual. Almost every known disease can be checked and possibly cured by correct diet."

Politics Will Be Feature Cooking School Tomorrow

Introduction of the live question of politics will be a feature of the Cooking School Thursday afternoon. Several candidates, local and district, are assisting the Canyon News and the business firms of Canyon in sponsoring the Cooking School.

Candidates who are sponsoring the School are asked to be at the American Legion Hall at 1:30 o'clock to meet the women as they arrive at the hall. At 2:00 o'clock all of the sponsoring candidates will be introduced, but no speeches made.

The following are candidates who have assisted in making the Cooking School the great success that it is:

J. D. Barker, candidate for County Attorney.

R. N. (Bob) Barnett, candidate for Sheriff and Tax Collector.

A. L. Biggs, candidate for County Judge.

A. C. Donnell, candidate for Sheriff and Tax Collector.

J. B. Fox, candidate for County Commissioner, Precinct No. 3.

A. B. Martin, candidate for Associate Justice, Court of Civil Appeals.

Mrs. Berl Edwards Mayfield, candidate for County and District Clerk.

THE USE OF WORDS

How often do we find difficulty in thinking of just the right word to express a certain idea? Even the greatest writers must often stop to weigh their words in order to hit upon the most appropriate one, while few speakers can observe all the niceties of expression without writing out their speeches and memorizing them beforehand.

This is not to any lack of words in the English language, however. Possibly it may be a result of our having too many to choose from. The latest unabridged dictionaries contain more than 400,000 words, and the list is increasing constantly.

Noah Webster's first dictionary, published in 1828, contained only about 70,000 words; the edition of 1864 included 114,000, and that of 1890 about 175,000, as compared with the 400,000 recognized words today.

Yet President Wilson, who was one of the foremost masters of English, in 75 different public addresses used a total of only 6,221 different words. In three of his published books, however, he used about 40,000 different words. This shows that vastly more words are used in writing than in speaking.

A leading lexicographer estimates that the educated person of fair ability understands on the average about 50,000 words, but uses only a small part of that number in either speaking or writing. The mass of people know and use less than 8,000 words out of the 400,000 available.

An interesting experiment is to inspect a few pages of an unabridged dictionary and count how many words out of a hundred you are really familiar with, both as to spelling and meaning. Try it.

SIGNED BUT NOT READ

Officials and others who have the habit of signing documents without reading them may take warning from what recently happened to Comrade Isakhanov, director of a Soviet Government shoe factory in Tiflis.

Russian periodical called The Crocodile is just now waging a campaign against inefficient officials, and the editors suspected that Isakhanov was not sufficiently diligent on his job. By some means it was arranged to have a fake letter presented to him for his signature, along with routine documents placed on his desk each day. Isakhanov fell into the trap, and this is what he signed without reading it:

"Through some misunderstanding I was promoted to the post of factory director. I seldom go to the workshops. I do everything I should not do, and do not what I should. I am a fool. Everybody knows that and I inform you as well. I am ready to sign any paper without reading it. I am proving this to you herewith. (Signed) G. Isakhanov."

The Crocodile published the letter and razzed the unlucky shoe factory head so unmercifully that it is said he will be forced out of his job and kicked out of the Communist party as well.

Moral: Don't sign anything before reading it—and seldom sign it afterward.

THE AGE OF MIRACLES

Do you ever stop to think of what has happened during the last half century? The perfected telephone, the electric railway, the incandescent lamp, the interior combustion engine, photo-engraving, airplanes, moving pictures, radio, X-ray photography, prohibition, the harnessing of electricity. Only a few years ago it was declared that man would never learn to fly. It seems only yesterday that the idea of conveying sound across limitless miles by ether waves was hooted at. Old-time printers easily remember when they asserted that when somebody invented a machine that could think it would be possible to invent a machine that would set type. Who would have thought, a half century ago, that men would ever circle the globe in less than ten days, fly the Atlantic, or converse across the oceans?

Why, even up to a comparatively few months ago, who would thought that the "best minds" of this republic would permit wheat to sell at less than 30 cents a bushel with the all-powerful tariff on that cereal 40 cents a bushel?

Surely the age of miracles, isn't it? And still going strong.—Frank H. Sosey, in Palmyra (Mo.) Spectator.

UNFOUNDED CRITICISM

Critics of the American plan of education in general and the college in particular claim that colleges long ago ceased to be gateways to the learned professions alone; that a majority of the men in a liberal arts school of today will become business men, not lawyers and doctors and ministers; that much of the liberal arts course is obviously wasted on such men because they are in college not to get culture, not to learn how to think, not to learn how to find out about things, but because college training is expected of a man, because college contacts are valuable, because later on a man must be able to do business with college men on an equal footing.

There are such undergraduates, but they are not the intellectual pick of the nation, nor do they lay any claims to that title. They commonly excel in the depreciation of scholarship and in the glorification of what are known as outside activities. They win no prizes for scholarship and they are graduated without distinction, but they usually manage to get temporary hold on enough book knowledge to get through four years without distinction or dishonor.

But all this is no indictment of the colleges. Every student does not get all he might out of his education but all get something. No critic of the present arrangements can tell how many embryonic Babbitts carry away from their four careless undergraduate years a leaven of culture, a disposition not to despise learning even while not embracing it. It may be good for the sheep and the goats to be together.

IT TAKES COURAGE

To live according to your convictions.

To be what you are and not pretend to be what you are not.

To say "No" squarely and firmly when those around you say "Yes."

To live honestly within your means and not dishonestly upon the means of others.

To refuse to do a thing which is wrong because others do it, or because it is customary and done in trade.

To stay home evenings and try to improve yourself when your comrades spend their evenings having a good time.

To remain in honest poverty while others grow rich by questionable methods which you could easily use yourself.

To refrain from gossip when others about you delight in it, and to stand up for an absent person who is being abused. But it always pays.—Progress Canada.

EARLY PHOTOGRAPHY.

While experiments which led to the ultimate developments of photography were made as far back as about 1778 by Scheele, a Swedish chemist, followed by the labors of Wedgwood in England, Seebeck in Germany, and many others, it remained for two Frenchmen, Niepce and Daguerre, to give to the world the first practical photographic process.

Niepce discovered a method of making photographs that would not fade in 1825, but it was not until 1839, six years after Niepce's death, that his co-worker Daguerre developed the daguerreotype, which marked the beginning of commercial photography.

In their earliest experiments, it required exposures of three to eight hours in bright sunlight to secure a photographic copy, but the first daguerreotypes were made by exposures of about half an hour. In the beginning only landscapes, monuments and the like could be used as subjects, as no living thing could be kept quite sufficiently long.

The first photographic personal portrait was made by Prof. John W. Draper, an American chemist, in 1840, after which improvements in processes followed in fairly rapid succession. Before 1840 the only means of preserving the likeness of persons was by the making of death masks or through sculpture, paintings and drawings.

Now the goal of photographic science and art is to produce pictures in colors direct from the subject, toward which some preliminary steps have been taken.

In view of the wonderful advances being made in every branch of science, it can hardly be doubted that direct color photography will one day be an accomplished fact.

A young lady writes in to the Journal-Post Confidante, and says she: "It's disgusting to see girls drink and smoke and pet instead of thinking of the better things of life." To which the Concordia Blade asks: "You're right, sister; now name five better things in life. All right, name two, then."

Dairy of Mrs. Ihrig Reveals That She Is Pleased With Equipment

(Editor's note: The life of the director of a Cooking School belongs to her audiences. The following is a page taken from the diary of Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, who is conducting the Canyon News' First Annual Cooking School at the American Legion Hall this week.)

"Tuesday, June 7.—The News' cooking school opened Tuesday afternoon with all the hustle and bustle which always attends the opening day. An excellent audience was present for the first session, large in number and apparently appreciative and very interested. I enjoy working with such an audience. They make one feel so very much at home.

"I am more than delighted with the equipment I have here in Canyon. I was quite surprised to find this such an enterprising city. One can get any sort of cooking utensils or appliances here. The stores are large, and have a personal friendliness not found in larger cities.

"The L. & H. range is a 'honey.' It bakes to perfection, and is easy to regulate.

"I have set aside all my worries about keeping meats and vegetables fresh and nice. The General Electric will take care of that.

"My Hoosier cabinets provide ample room for the dishes and utensils. And the work tables are the best I have ever had in a school.

"And I have such good things to cook with, Great West flour, K C Baking Powder, excellent fruits and vegetables from Bellah's New Food Store, and tender meats from the Buffalo Market.

"I like Canyon and its friendly people so very much. I shall be sorry to leave here next Saturday. The residents of West Texas have a personal friendliness unequalled in any other part of the country.

TEXAS PRINTERS TO FURNISH ETEX C. C. WITH ENVELOPES

Of interest to Texas printers and newspaper men is the announcement from Hubert M. Harrison, general manager of the East Texas Chamber of commerce, that his organization will hereafter be furnished with its entire envelope supply by Texas printing offices and that the use of government-printed envelopes has been abandoned. It is expected that Texas printers will co-operate to the extent of buying their envelopes from a Texas envelope manufacturing plant.

BRIDGE CLUB PRAISES NEW GAS RANGE—

THE CANYON NEWS is indeed fortunate to secure the services of MRS. LEONA IHRIG to conduct The Cooking School. Attend each day.

The following conversation, overheard at a bridge tea not long ago, gives some idea of the reception accorded the new gas range on display at the dealer's store.

Mrs. E: Did I tell you I bought one of those new Gas Ranges?

Mrs. C: No, really! How do you like it?

Mrs. K: I bid one club.

Mrs. E: I'm crazy about it. It's so small and compact. Honestly, I...

Mrs. J: Isn't it your bid?

Mrs. E: Oh... sorry... one diamond!

Mrs. C: How is the oven?

Mrs. E: Works like a charm! It's insulated, you know, and has one of those new heat regulators.

Mrs. C: I'm going to see if Fred won't get me one. Oh, whose bid is it?

Mrs. J: YOURS!

Mrs. C: Mine? Oh, Yes... well... a... two hearts!

If you've overheard conversations like these, why not stop in to see your local Gas Appliance dealer and get complete details of this range? It's really a revolutionary improvement over old models.

Miss Leona Belle Aynesworth Becomes Bride of Mr. Elmer Wooten

In a quiet ceremony, beautiful in its simplicity, Miss Leona Belle Aynesworth of Borger and Mr. Elmer Wooten of Canyon were united in marriage at eleven o'clock Tuesday morning by Dr. G. L. Yates, pastor of the First Baptist church of Amarillo, at his home, 1212 Van Buren Street, Amarillo. They were attended by Miss Inez Ridling of Canyon and Mr. Landis Bebermeyer of Albuquerque, New Mexico. The immediate families of the couple witnessed the ceremony.

The bride was attractive in a semi-tailored frock of rough white crepe with accessories to match. Miss Ridling wore a dress of pale green with matching accessories.

Mrs. Wooten is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Joseph Aynesworth of Borger. She is a graduate of the West Texas State Teachers training school and was enrolled as a sophomore in the college at the time of her marriage. She is a member of the Elphelion Literary society, is popular among the student body and took an active part in student affairs.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wooten of Canyon. He is a graduate of the Canyon High School and is a senior student in W. T. S. T. C. The past year he was chief of the Red Man Organization and prominent in college affairs.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a honeymoon trip to southern Texas. They have not announced where they will make their home.

MISS RUBY ALLISON WEDS MR. McMILLAN

Miss Ruby Allison, formerly of Ryan, Oklahoma, and Mr. Eldredge McMillan of Canyon were quietly married at the home of Rev. B. F. Fronabarger of Canyon this week. The ceremony, which only a few relatives witnessed was impressive in its simplicity.

Refreshments were served following the ceremony. The couple will make their home in Canyon.

GIRL SCOUT CAMP IS BIG SUCCESS

Miss Lois Goodrich, scoutmaster of the local Girl Scouts, reports that the recent Girl Scout Camp held at the Methodist Encampment was one of the most successful ever held here. More than forty girls attended the camp which was made possible by the American Legion Auxiliary, sponsors, and by women of the town.

Mrs. Hud Prichard, community service chairman, who had charge of the plans for the outing, stated that the women of Canyon cooperated in a wonderful way in arranging for provisions and transportation facilities for the girls and that both the scouts and the sponsors wished to thank them for their time and efforts in arranging for the camp.

ALBERT E. TERRY, JR. CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Young Master Albert E. Terry celebrated his fourth birthday Friday afternoon by inviting a number of his young friends to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Terry, 1611 Seventh Avenue, for an afternoon of games.

The guests assembled at 4:30 and held games and contests out on the lawn until the refreshment hour when they were invited into the dining room. The table was centered with a miniature house, "The House That Jack Built," and from each of its windows and doors a ribbon led to the plates. One by one the guests drew their ribbons from the little house and discovered that to each was attached a whistle favor. Holiday hats were also distributed among the tiny tots. The birthday cakes were cut and served with ice cream. Albert E. was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from his young friends.

The guest list included the following: Ellen Sanders, Marcellas Blue, Andy Walsh, Jr., Arthur Bailey Duncan, Billy Davis, Anita Davis, Phyllis White, Barbara White, Harold Helzer, Billy Helzer.

Carlene Scott, Earl Lock Neff, Connie Mac Davis, Elwin Morton and Joan Morton.

STUDENT GET-TOGETHER TO BE GIVEN AT M. E. CHURCH

The Methodist church extends a hearty welcome to the students, faculty and townspeople to attend the church program Sunday evening at 6:45 in the basement of the church building.

The program will be in the form of a mixer or get-acquainted meeting so that the new students may have an opportunity to meet the faculty and people of the town. Refreshments will be served and announcements concerning the student program for the summer given.

Following the serving of refreshments a candle light communion service will be held in the auditorium. Music for the occasion will be given by the choir. Mrs. Grace Parkinson Wood, a former teacher of organ here, who has returned to Canyon for the summer, will be at the organ. The program will be under the direction of Miss Mattie Mae Swisher, student secretary.

W. J. Flesher of Amarillo was a business caller in the city today.

ERNEST COX OUT FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE

AUSTIN, Texas, June 3.—Ernest C. Cox of Austin has tendered his resignation as National Executive Committee member and chairman of the legislative committee of the American Legion and has announced his candidacy for Congressman-at-large, Place No. 1, subject to the action of the democratic primaries, according to a statement issued here today.

Mr. Cox was born on a farm at Ozra, Ellis county, Texas, where he received his public school education. Later he attended Cleburne college and the University of Texas from which latter institution he went into the military service and served as an enlisted man in the 38th Division until the close of the World War.

He has served successively as superintendent of the municipal and U. S. Employment Service, manager of boys at the State Orphan Home, Corsicana, six years as a member of the State legislature from Navarro county resigning from that body to serve as State Commander of the American Legion in Texas 1929-30.

Mr. Cox is well known to American Legion men in Canyon. He has visited here a number of times, and spoke in Canyon last year while on a trip over the state. He served one session in the legislature with Clyde W. Warwick of this city.

HOUD OF HEAVEN.

A lady living in the Gramercy Park section was walking home from a friend's house in the neighborhood the other evening when suddenly traversing a dark cross-street she became aware that a man was following her.

She hurried a little faster, but, glancing cautiously over her shoulder she saw that the man was coming faster still—was, in fact, overtaking her.

Just short of her own apartment house doorway he caught up with her.

"Take this," he told her in a hoarse voice, and showed a folded piece of paper into her hands.

She took it and, still frozen with fear, darted into the house, up to her apartment, and looked and bolted the door. Then after she had taken a deep breath, she looked at the paper. It read: "Jesus Loves You."—New Yorker.

Keep Building

The COUNTY The COLLEGE And CANYON

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

FRED E. WORTHAM, Secretary

The fact that the Plains Museum Society of Lubbock, Texas was granted a charter by the Secretary of State last Saturday should be an incentive for people of Canyon to bend every effort possible to raise the necessary $25,000 to match the state appropriation of the same amount.

The organization and charter of this new society means only one thing and that is, IF THE MUSEUM IS NOT BUILT NOW IT WILL NEVER BE BUILT IN CANYON.

If we lose that building we have lost all the work of the Plains handle-Plains Historical Society for the past 10 years.

Every effort is needed now. It must be put over. As each day draws nearer the final date for fund raising, the remaining amount to be raised is a bit smaller.

It can be done and it will be done.

A trend of the sentiment for the Museum and the encouragement that it will be put over is evidenced by the fact that the Chamber of Commerce has already received a number of requests from out of town people for tickets to the Museum Fund Minstrel to be staged in the College Auditorium on the night of June 17. A number of these people do not plan to be present but want to do their bit by purchasing a few tickets.

SOME BIBLE FACTS.

Dr. Thomas Horne, an English Bible scholar and critic who died in 1862, devoted several years to compiling interesting facts about the Bible, among them being the following:

The Bible is composed of 66 books, containing 1,189 chapters, 41,173 verses, 774,746 words, and 3,566,480 letters. The shortest verse is John 11:35 and contains only the two words, "Jesus wept."

The longest verse is Esther 8:9.

The word "Lord" occurs 1,853 times; "Jehovah" 5,845 times; the word "girl" only twice; "everlasting fire" is found twice; while the words "everlasting punishment," "eternity" and "reverend" occur only once each.

Several verses are duplicated, thus four verses of the 107th Psalm are identical, and the 36th chapter of Isaiah and the 19th chapter of II Kings are exactly alike.

No original manuscript of any portion of the Bible is in existence. The oldest manuscript known, a fragment of the 11th chapter of the Psalms, thought to have been written in the third century, is preserved in the British Museum. The Bible as we know it has come down to us through the translations, the first complete English translation having been made by John Wycliffe, who died in 1384, and his fellow workers, Nicholas and Purvey.

William Tyndale was the first to print the Bible in English, beginning in 1525. He printed all of the New Testament and a small portion of the Old, but his translation came under the displeasure of the ecclesiastical authorities. After 15 months' imprisonment he was tried and burned at the stake for heresy on October 6, 1536.

HELMET OF NAVARRE.

The vicar was paying a visit to the houses of his poorest parishioners, and in one of the houses he asked a good many questions about the family. A very grubby, but very cheerful little boy attracted the kindly cleric's attention, and he asked him his name.

"Reginald d'Arcy Smif, sir," replied the boy with a grin.

The vicar turned to the boy's father.

"What made you give the boy a name like that?" he asked.

"Cause I want 'im to be a professional boxer," returned the parent, "an' wiv a name like that he'll get plenty of practice at school!"—Tattler.

BANKER URGES ADVERTISING

Melvin A. Strauss, vice president of the Strauss National Bank, is reported as recommending the keeping up of advertising appropriations in the newspapers as the best means of stimulating buying, and that his bank would urge its patron firms to maintain normal advertising expenditures because hoarding of advertising money "is one of the most disturbing factors in business today."

"If business lacks confidence in itself, how can the public be expected to have any?" he inquired. "What business needs is self-confidence and public confidence, and advertising by the printed word can bring it."

The proof of this being that during 1931 more than 100 national advertisers who increased their advertising gained in sales and profits.

Cop (overhauling speeding car): "Say, do you realize you were going 65 miles an hour?"

Sweet Young Thing: "Sixty-five! Don't be silly! I couldn't have been going over 30 at the most. In fact, I don't believe I was going more than 25 at the outside."

Cop: "Well, maybe you're right. I'll just tear this ticket up and give you one for parking."

A farmer was passing the insane asylum with a load of fertilizer. An inmate called through the fence. "What are you hauling?"

"Fertilizer," replied the farmer. "What are you going to do with it?"

"Put it on my strawberries," reported the farmer.

The inmate countered quickly: "You ought to live here. We get cream on ours."

A big issue in 1923 was farm relief. This year it will be everybody's relief.

consider these candidates for office and here's why:

In bringing to Canyon Mrs. Leona Rusk Irig, nationally known Culinary Expert, for The News Free Cooking School, the newspaper underwrote all expenses—a considerable sum—in the belief that the Cooking School would be worth many times its cost. Undoubtedly it is, but some one has to foot the bills.

These Candidates for elective office believe the Cooking School is a wonderful help to the people of Canyon and Randall County. They are defraying a part of the expenses of the School and urge their friends and the public in general to attend every session. They are glad of the opportunity to help make possible this community event.
